The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Australian Government Business website. The header includes the Australian Government logo, the word 'Business', and the URL 'business.gov.au'. A search bar is located on the right. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for 'Registrations', 'Business Information', 'Grants & Programs', 'Expertise & Advice', 'Events & Training', and 'News'. The breadcrumb trail reads: 'Home > Planning > New businesses > Start a business as a young person'. The main content area features the title 'Start a business as a young person' and a sub-header 'Last Updated: 17 February 2020'. The text below the title states: 'Understand what steps you need to take to start your own business as a young person. Find out what legal and tax obligations you may need to comply with and learn where to get help.' At the bottom, there is a section titled 'On this page' with a list item '1. Determine your business' and a short paragraph: 'You've got an entrepreneurial spirit, but you're a little younger than the typical business owner. Don't let that stop you from starting your own business!'.
